Know your characters.

A good writer knows everything about the characters in their story and how they react to different situations.

Situation

_____

_____

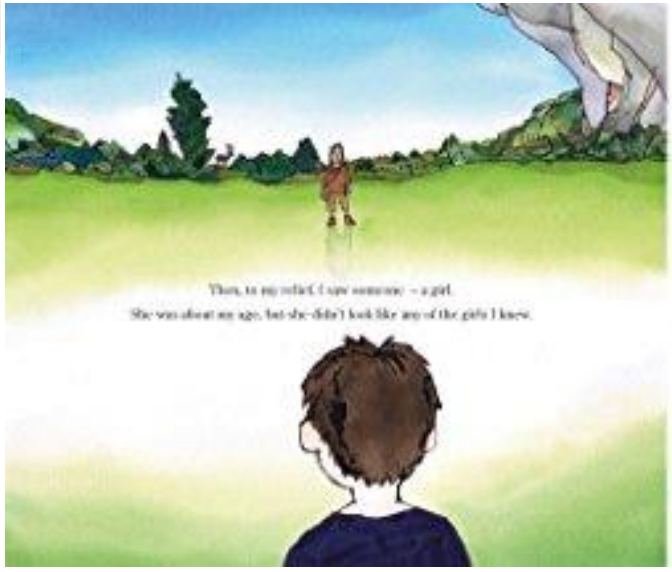
_____

_____

Character

Feelings	Thoughts	Speech

Describe a situation and then think about how your character would react. What would he/she say, think and be feeling?



Think about the main character in the Stone Age Boy, how would he feel finding himself in the Stone Age.

Plan some ideas about their feelings, thoughts, and speech in the situation.

Write a description of the character's thoughts and feelings.